Ohio's Accidental Death Toll Zooms During Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

After several comparatively safe and sane weekends, Ohio's accidental death toll jumped to its highest total in over a month.

In the 54-hour period ended Sunday midnight, 29 persons died in the state—24 of them on Ohio's highways.

Seven of the highway deaths occurred in two crashes. Four women were killed Saturday in a two-car crash at an intersection near Mansfield. A father and two of his children were killed Friday night in a pileup of two cars and a truck near Marysville.

Besides the highway deaths, three youths drowned, a 9-year-old girl was killed when she fell from a horse and a Springfield man died of burns received when a hot water tank exploded.

The fatalities:

Friday Night

Donald L. Creech, 27, of Springfield; his daughter, Bonnie Lou, 11 months and his stepdaughter, Vicki Feasel, 4, when their car slammed head-on into a brick-laden truck on Ohio 36-4 south of Marysville.

Gary Lee Sidwell, 18, of Sayre (Perry County) when the car in which he was riding overturned on a county road near New Lexington.

Saturday

Mrs. Robert Newton, 37, of Rt. 1, Lexington; Mary Theresa Serne 47, and Diana Rose Clark, 26, both of Mansfield, and Linda Harter, 21, of Rt. 1, Wooster, when the auto driven by Mrs. Newton and a car in which the others were riding collided at a Mansfield intersection.

Mrs. Lois Hurst, 28, of Saginaw, Mich., when the car in which she was riding collided head-on with another on U.S. 25 at Bowling Green.

Arthur McCrone, 11, of Fairport Harbor, drowned in Lake Erie off the Fairport Beach where he had been swimming.

James Raymond Burchett, 26, of Zanesville, when struck by a bus on U.S. 40 west of Zanesville.

Thomas A. Wallace, 45, of Canton, when his auto went off pavement and overturned in Canton. James Ficks, 65, of Akron, when he ran a red light, police said, and crashed into another vehicle at U.S. 21 and Ohio 18 in Montrose.

William Miller, 22, of Sharonville, when his car overturned in a construction area on Ohio 747 near Hamilton-Butler County line. Herman Floyd Coe, 47, of Fleming, when his car crashed into a guard rail on U.S. 50 east of Fleming.

David L. Forst, 33, of Columbus, when his motorcycle left the road and hit a utility pole in Fairfield County.

Roger Dale McClary, 12, of Willow Woods, near Ironton, after being injured Friday night when a car driven by his brother on Ohio 775 near Proctorville hit a concrete bridge abutment.

Paul Mallorie of Conneaut, when his car collided head-on with another on U.S. 20 in Madison while he was attempting to pass another car.

Levi Brook, 18, of Pineville, Ky., when a car struck him as he was bicycling on U.S. 25 north of Lima. Luther Templeton, 13, of Loveland, when hit by a car on Ohio 28 near Milford.

Judge Devence, 40, of Cleveland, when his auto caromed off another on U.S. 422 in Moreland Hills, Cleveland suburb, then spun out of control.

Karen Poock, 9, of Cleveland, when she fell from a horse at Lake Pymatuning, a resort area on the Ohio - Pennsylvania border.

Sunday

Melvin Thomas, 31, of Detroit, when the car he was driving left slippery U.S. 25 north of Bowling Green and he was thrown out in the wreck.

Edward F. Ebenger Sr., 66, of Springfield, died Sunday of injuries received Friday night in a blast and flash fire when he attempted to light a hot water tank heater in the basement of his summer home at Thackery (Champaign County).

Ervin Forman, 17, of Somerville, drowned in a Butler County swim.

Virginia Robbins, 26, of Ashland, Ky., when the panel truck in which she was riding collided with two cars on U.S. 52 west of Ironton.

Mrs. Dorothy Dixon, 29, of Columbus, in an auto collision just east of Columbus.

John Andrew Gray, 56, of Taylor Center, Mich., when his car crashed on U.S. 20 near Wauseon.

Paul Fountain, 15, of Christian, Pa., drowned in a small lake near Cambridge when he and four other youths attempted to swim about 50 feet from a boat they had been in to shore.

Last Civil War Vet Still Clings to Life

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Confederate veteran Walter Williams, critically ill for a week, remains "about the same," his daughter said Sunday night.

Williams, 116, last survivor of the Civil War armies, took some nourishment Sunday morning but none the rest of the day.

Dr. Russell Wolfe, Williams' physician, reported a week ago that the old soldier's death could be expected within days. An attack of pneumonia about six weeks ago left him in weakened condition.

600 POISONED AT PICNIC — A temporary hospital is set up in the National Guard Armory at Angola, Ind., after food poisoning struck down about half of the 1,200 persons attending an industrial drug firm's picnic at a private resort near Angola. The poisoning, said to be a type of ptomaine, was blamed on ham served to the picnickers in sandwiches.

Ike Leads U.S. in Mourning For Death of Adm. Halsey

FISHERS ISLAND, N.Y. (AP) — President Eisenhower led the nation today in mourning the death of Fleet Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey.

Halsey, 76, died here Sunday of a heart attack while vacationing. He gained fame as the admiral who chased the Japanese fleet to its death in the Pacific in World War II.

Eisenhower, who heard the news of Halsey's death at Gettysburg, Pa., said he had lost a warm personal friend, and the nation one of its "great natural leaders."

"His great personal contribution to the successful campaigns in the Pacific and the exploits of the forces under his command are a brilliant part of American military history," said Eisenhower.

Secretary of the Navy William B. Franke said in Washington that Halsey "leaves a heritage of inspiration to those now in the Navy."

Another great military figure of the Pacific war, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, said, "He was one of our greatest admirals, and his name will always be associated with our great victory over Japan."

Halsey was born in Elizabeth, N.J., the son of a ship captain. He was never an outstanding scholar, but managed to enter Annapolis, and played fullback on the football team. On graduation in 1904, the yearbook called him "a real old salt."

When Halsey took command of Navy forces in the South Pacific in 1942, the tide of war was running heavily in favor of Japan.

"We had nothing but a shoe-string. We were told to hold on, and we held on—from Guadalcanal to Tokyo," he said later.

"When I had the 3rd Fleet, I had a tremendous steamroller," Halsey said. "I could do anything I damned pleased. But in those early days, I was scared to death all the time. The Japs had everything. They could have wiped us out."

His daring made the shoe-string fleet a telling weapon. His motto was simple—"Hit hard, hit fast and hit often."

Only a few months after taking command, he led his forces deep into the Pacific for a strike at the Marshall and Gilbert Islands, the first big naval offensive of the war.

Finally his forces gained control of the Pacific and in 1945, during a 35-day period, his command destroyed or damaged 2,804 enemy planes, sank or damaged 148 Japanese combat ships and sank or damaged 1,598 merchant ships.

He leaves his widow, a son, William F. Halsey III, and a Spruance.

Family of 5 Completes Rigorous 2-Week Test in Atom Bomb Shelter

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The Thomas A. Pownier family has just survived a rigorous test of togetherness. All five of them emerged Friday after two weeks of isolation in a 72-square-foot a-bomb shelter.

And, said Mr. and Mrs. Pownier Saturday, the experience was "very beneficial."

After a day of medical and psychological tests, the parents held a news conference at Princeton University with their two boys, Scott, 5, and Tory, 3½, and girl, Hilary, 23 months.

The family had gone into the cubicle on July 31 in the basement of a university laboratory at the request of the Federal Office of Civilian Defense.

The main purpose was to learn what physical and psychological changes are needed in civil defense plans for a standard family shelter.

Pownier, 31, said the main problems during the two weeks were heat and odors. He's a contractor from Cranbury and has built several homes. Pownier had several suggestions for making life more livable in a shelter. One dealt with garbage disposal.

They accumulated a four-foot pile of garbage.

Air was piped in to the concrete shelter and circulated by hand pumps which the family turned every half hour during waking hours.

Humidity was a problem with clothes taking a day and a half to dry after they were washed. The temperature averaged 83 degrees at the ceiling and 71 at the floor.

They took 38 gallons of water in with them and had 10 left over when they walked out.

The parents took along a word game and a dozen books. For the children, they had books, games, crayons, puzzles and toys.

The shelter was stocked with $130 worth of food, all of it canned or packaged. It ranged from ravioli to peanut butter.

Mrs. Pownier cooked in a chafing dish over a candle. It took an hour and a half to heat a can of spaghetti.

The family didn't know it at the time but every word they spoke during the 336-hour stint was monitored and recorded on 38 miles of tape. Prof. Jack A. Vernon said the monitoring was necessary for the Powniers' own safety and they could not be told of it or the test would not have been realistic.

Mrs. Pownier, 31, wore shorts during the test and, like the other members of the family, went barefoot. She made one concession to gracious living—a lipstick which she took along and used "to keep up my morale."

Once a day the family did exercises, capped by a big march around the shelter accompanied by the noise of banging on tins.

Vernon said this noise was "intolerable" over the microphones. "I don't know how they stood it."

Union Chiefs Licking Wounds

Effort Made to Dull Labor Bill Teeth

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—Top leaders of organized labor gathered today to nurse political wounds from their recent labor bill defeat in Congress and to consider inter-union conflict.

Members of the AFL-CIO Executive command—mapped plans to try to salvage the best bill possible from the union viewpoint between Senate and House-passed versions.

The union leaders like neither one, but prefer the Senate bill sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sam J. Ervin Jr., (D-NC) over the House bill by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga.) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich). The House bill is supported by President Eisenhower.

Federation leaders already were talking of stepping up political action plans to try to defeat in the 1960 election many of the members of the Democratic-Republican coalition which formed to put over the Landrum-Griffin House bill last week.

Labor leaders are growing cool to the Democratic party, one member of the AFL-CIO high command told newsmen.

This official said privately that union leaders feel the Democrats, with almost a two-thirds majority of House and Senate, did not exercise the political control available to them.

Competitive jurisdictional feuds between AFL-CIO unions have been growing. A number of unions have been thumbing their noses at jurisdictional awards made under the AFL-CIO no-raid machinery and by the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

There seems to be some disposition to change the no-raid machinery so that special consideration could be given in the future to accommodate groups of workers who want to switch unions.

As things stand now, the union that has traditionally represented a worker group in a given plant or industry must continue to do so under the no-raid plan. But the National Labor Relations Board has been insisting, in a series of decisions, that the workers be assured their legal right to change unions if they so desire.

Missouri Collision Causes 11 Deaths

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Two cars smashed head-on Sunday night in a rending crash that killed 11 persons.

Eight others were injured in the two cars. Six of the dead were adults and five were children.

One wrecked car was owned by G.W. Eddy of White Hall, Ill., and the other by LeRoy Thompson, 31, of Richmond, Mo. Eddy died in the crash; Thompson was hurt.

At Richmond, friends said Thompson, his wife, Jessie, 33, and eight of their children had started to St. Louis on vacation. The crash occurred on a flat, straight section of road in clear weather.

Injuries Fatal To LAFB Sgt.

Richard E. Montgomery, 23, a staff sergeant at Lockbourne Air Force Base, died at 1:40 a. m. today in University Hospital, Columbus, of injuries received in a traffic accident near here Sunday.

Montgomery, whose home is in Kalamancan, N. Y., died of internal injuries. Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover said his car struck a concrete culvert on Route 752 about 12 miles northeast of Circleville at 1:15 a. m. Sunday.

The airman was rushed to Mercy Hospital, Columbus. He later was transferred to Lockbourne Base Hospital, then removed to University Hospital where he died.

Deputy Hoover, on the scene shortly after the accident, said Montgomery suffered a fractured left leg, a fractured left arm and internal injuries. He was listed in "critical" condition until time of death, the deputy said.

According to the deputy, the car was demolished and the north side of the culvert was destroyed. He said the victim's foot was pinned in the crash, requiring several minutes to free him.

Information received here disclosed that Montgomery is survived by his wife, Esther. The body was removed to the Gosnell Funeral Home, Columbus.

The death marked the sixth fatal accident on Pickaway County highways since January 1. Last year at this time only two traffic deaths had been recorded here.

Two Republican senators announced they would introduce in the Senate today a resolution asking that President Eisenhower make public the facts about the strike that he possesses.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell has been acting as Eisenhower's fact-finder on the strike.

Sens. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) and George D. Aiken (R-Vt) said in a joint statement in Washington that they were introducing a substitute for a pending resolution that their resolution would be introduced by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and signed by 32 other Democratic senators.

In asking that the President make public at once a report by Mitchell, Javits and Aiken said such a move "should be able to crystallize the weight of public opinion to bring about a settlement of the strike or indicate what further steps may be taken to bring it about."

Javits and Aiken said their proposal that Eisenhower tell the public just what Mitchell has determined to date as fact-finder would omit the Symington resolution as a mediator or make recommendations on settlement terms.

Nuptial Aides Picked

SOGNE, Norway (AP)—Anne Marie Rasmussen today picked her 19-year-old sister, Thorhild, to be the maid of honor for her wedding to Steven Rockefeller Saturday. She chose five friends from school days for bridesmaids.

The judge's opinion also said: "It appears to be a growing tendency on the part of many traffic officers to use the serious charge of reckless operation as a catch-all when in fact a lesser and more specific charge should be used."

Auto Accidents

Wipe Out Girl's

Nuptial Plans Twice

SOUTH GATE, Calif. (AP) — Last year an auto accident wrecked the wedding plans of Geraldine Neff — just one night before the marriage was to take place.

Geraldine was to marry John Fulton of nearby Compton on June 29, 1958. The night before the wedding Fulton was involved in an accident en route to a bachelor party. He was left permanently paralyzed. About three months ago he broke off the engagement.

Two months later, the 19-year-old South Gate girl became engaged to Cecil Roberts of Chino, Calif.

Last Friday night, driving alone near Las Vegas, Nev., Miss Neff made a U-turn and crashed into another car.

She was to have married Roberts Saturday. But she died in the crash.

Cops Seek Driver After Fatal Crash

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A hunt for an unidentified driver of a yellow car was intensified Sunday with the death of a trucker whose tractor-trailer the car is believed to have forced off a road near here last Thursday.

Frank B. Young, 49, of Dayton, died in a hospital here after suffering extensive burns and other injuries in the crash on Ohio 49 north of Phillipsburg. His tractor ignited and he was afire until a bystander tore his clothes off and wrapped him in a blanket.

County detectives said they had a witness who corroborated word from Young while semiconscious in the hospital that the yellow car caused the accident.

Inter-Am Parley Hears Protest

Caribbean Tensions Studied by Envoys

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Haiti protested to the Inter-American Foreign Ministers Conference today against the invasion of that Negro republic by a small band of revolutionaries.

The Haitian delegation said the invaders, who terrorized a village after landing Thursday, are believed to have come from Cuba. Haitian troops are hunting them.

This was the first case of violence formally brought to the attention of the conference, called to discuss Caribbean tension.

Haiti's foreign minister, Louis Mars, delivered the protest to Foreign Minister German Vergara Donoso of Chile, chairman of the conference.

The Haitian note, however, may be referred to the Organization of American States instead of being taken up formally by the ministers. Their meeting is scheduled to wind up Tuesday.

Mars declared Haiti is "the victim of aggression whose manifest objective is to alter public order and menace the stability of a constitutional government."

His complaint noted that about 30 men with long beards and green uniforms, who were possibly Cuban revolutionaries, had landed on Haiti's south coast.

Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's brother Raul was due in Santiago as the foreign ministers of Latin America and the United States argued final details of a compromise plan to calm the Caribbean.

The younger Castro's impact on the foreign ministers' talks — now in their sixth day—was likely to be light. It was not even certain he would appear before the conference. However, it was understood in Havana that he was bringing documents purporting to link the Dominican Republic's dictator, Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, with the anti-Castro conspiracy the Cuban regime says it uncovered last week.

The foreign ministers meanwhile hammered out agreement on a set of resolutions being presented to the conference's general committee. It was expected they would be signed at a final conference session Tuesday.

The key resolution would give the already existing Inter-American Peace Committee of the Organization of American States temporary powers to study "methods and procedures to prevent activities originating abroad designed to overthrow constituted governments."

The aim is to prevent such things as the invasion of Panama last April by about 100 men, mostly Cubans, recent invasions of Nicaragua from Costa Rica and Honduras, the Dominican campaign against Castro and Castro's against Trujillo.

The resolution balances this fire prevention agency urged by the United States with provisions to meet demands by Cuba and Venezuela for emphasis on strict observance of human rights and representative democracy and economic help for underdeveloped nations.

The United States is chairman of the peace committee. Other members are Venezuela, Uruguay, El Salvador and Mexico. The committee's findings will be reported to the regular Inter-American foreign ministers' conference scheduled to be held in Quito Ecuador, next year.

Senate Studies New Housing

Revised Version Aimed At Pleasing Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today took up a new $1,050,000,000 housing bill to replace one which President Eisenhower vetoed.

There was a possibility the measure might go to the White House late in the day. If the Senate acts in time, the House may take it up at once under a rules suspension procedure requiring a two-thirds vote.

The bill is trimmed down below the $1,375,000,000 total in the measure Eisenhower vetoed last month. But it still retains all the major programs of the earlier version in a reduced form.

The veto was upheld in the Senate last Wednesday on a 55-40 vote, 9 short of the two-thirds needed to override. The Senate Banking Committee then whipped out the substitute bill Thursday.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.), floor manager for the measure, predicted it would be approved promptly. He conceded the bill had been shaped with the idea that the House could take it without change.

No official word has come from the administration, however, that President Eisenhower is willing to accept the new measure.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.), senior Republican on the Housing subcommittee, said he believed the President would sign the bill. If he does not, Capehart said, there will be enough votes to override a second veto.

The bill contains authorizations for several government-backed housing programs and also several provisions designed to aid the private home building industry.

Farmers Union Essay Contest Prizes Given

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Farmers Union has named Diana Oliver, 16, of Mount Orab, the winner of a statewide essay contest on the topic, "Why I want to Save the Family Farm."

Eight other junior and senior high school students also competed in the finals, held Sunday at the Ohio Farmers Union camp on Lake Cowan. The nine finalists were chosen from among more than 50 entrants in the state, said Joseph Fichter of Oxford, state chairman.

Second place went to Vernalyn Wood, 17, of Waynesville, who represented the Warren County Farmers Union. Sharing third place honors are Mary Moon, 14, of New Vienna, representing the Clinton County Farmers Union, and John Simmerman, 11, of South Solon, representing the Madison County Farmers Union.

Miss Oliver and Miss Wood will receive a trip to Washington, D. C. this winter. They will accompany an Ohio Farmers Union delegation which plans to confer with members of Congress.

600 POISONED AT PICNIC — A temporary hospital is set up in the National Guard Armory at Angola, Ind., after food poisoning struck down about half of the 1,200 persons attending an industrial drug firm's picnic at a private resort near Angola. The poisoning, said to be a type of ptomaine, was blamed on ham served to the picnickers in sandwiches.

Ike Leads U.S. in Mourning For Death of Adm. Halsey

FISHERS ISLAND, N.Y. (AP) — President Eisenhower led the nation today in mourning the death of Fleet Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey.

Halsey, 76, died here Sunday of a heart attack while vacationing. He gained fame as the admiral who chased the Japanese fleet to its death in the Pacific in World War II.

Eisenhower, who heard the news of Halsey's death at Gettysburg, Pa., said he had lost a warm personal friend, and the nation one of its "great natural leaders."

"His great personal contribution to the successful campaigns in the Pacific and the exploits of the forces under his command are a brilliant part of American military history," said Eisenhower.

Secretary of the Navy William B. Franke said in Washington that Halsey "leaves a heritage of inspiration to those now in the Navy."

Another great military figure of the Pacific war, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, said, "He was one of our greatest admirals, and his name will always be associated with our great victory over Japan."

Halsey was born in Elizabeth, N.J., the son of a ship captain. He was never an outstanding scholar, but managed to enter Annapolis, and played fullback on the football team. On graduation in 1904, the yearbook called him "a real old salt."

When Halsey took command of Navy forces in the South Pacific in 1942, the tide of war was running heavily in favor of Japan. "We had nothing but a shoe-string. We were told to hold on, and we held on—from Guadalcanal to Tokyo," he said later.

"When I had the 3rd Fleet, I had a tremendous steamroller," Halsey said. "I could do anything I damned pleased. But in those early days, I was scared to death all the time. The Japs had everything. They could have wiped us out."

His daring made the shoe-string fleet a telling weapon. His motto was simple—"Hit hard, hit fast and hit often."

Only a few months after taking command, he led his forces deep into the Pacific for a strike at the Marshall and Gilbert Islands, the first big naval offensive of the war.

Finally his forces gained control of the Pacific and in 1945, during a 35-day period, his command destroyed or damaged 2,804 enemy planes, sank or damaged 148 Japanese combat ships and sank or damaged 1,598 merchant ships.

He leaves his widow, a son, William F. Halsey III, and a Spruance.

After White was bitten, a telephone call was made to the Miami serpentarium. John Flinchbaugh, owner of the reptile garden, said the Miami place was the only source of anti-cobra serum in the United States. The serum is made in Bombay, India.

A hospital attendant said White, who has been bitten about 100 times by non-poisonous snakes during his four years at the reptile garden, remarked as the serum was injected, "I knew all the time I'd be okay."

A few minutes after midnight, Dr. C. C. DuMont said White's condition was satisfactory.

"He has a chance to recover," said Dr. DuMont. "I think he'll be okay."

Union Chiefs Licking Wounds

Effort Made to Dull Labor Bill Teeth

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—Top leaders of organized labor gathered today to nurse political wounds from their recent labor bill defeat in Congress and to consider inter-union conflict.

Members of the AFL-CIO Ex-high command—mapped plans to try to salvage the best bill possible from the union viewpoint between Senate and House-passed versions.

The union leaders like neither one, but prefer the Senate bill sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sam F. Ervin Jr., (D-NC) over the House bill by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich). The House bill is supported by President Eisenhower.

Federation leaders already were talking of stepping up political action plans to try to defeat in the 1960 election many of the members of the Democratic-Republican coalition which formed to put over the Landrum-Griffin House bill last week.

Labor leaders are growing cool to the Democratic party, one member of the AFL-CIO high command told newsmen.

This official said privately that union leaders feel the Democrats, with almost a two-thirds majority of House and Senate, did not exercise the political control available to them.

Competitive jurisdictional feuds between AFL-CIO unions have been growing. A number of unions have been thumbing their noses at jurisdictional awards made under the AFL-CIO no-raid machinery and by the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

There seems to be some disposition to change the no-raid machinery so that special consideration could be given in the future to accommodate groups of workers who want to switch unions.

As things stand now, the union that has traditionally represented a worker group in a given plant or industry must continue to do so under the no-raid plan. But the National Labor Relations Board has been insisting, in a series of decisions, that the workers be assured their legal right to change unions if they so desire.

Missouri Collision Causes 11 Deaths

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Two cars smashed head-on Sunday night in a rending crash that killed 11 persons.

Eight others were injured in the two cars. Six of the dead were adults and five were children.

One wrecked car was owned by G.W. Eddy of White Hall, Ill., and the other by LeRoy Thompson, 31, of Richmond, Mo. Eddy died in the crash; Thompson was hurt.

At Richmond, friends said Thompson, his wife, Jessie, 33, and eight of their children had started to St. Louis on vacation.

The crash occurred on a flat, straight section of road in clear weather.

They took 38 gallons of water in with them and had 10 left over when they walked out.

The parents took along a word game and a dozen books. For the children, they had books, games, crayons, puzzles and toys.

The shelter was stocked with $130 worth of food, all of it canned or packaged. It ranged from ravioli to peanut butter.

Mrs. Powner cooked in a chafing dish over a candle. It took an hour and a half to heat a can of spaghetti.

The family didn't know it at the time but every word they spoke during the 336-hour stint was monitored and recorded on 38 miles of tape.

Prof. Jack A. Vernon said the monitoring was necessary for the Powners' own safety and they could not be told of it or the test would not have been realistic.

Mrs. Powner, 31, wore shorts during the test and, like the other members of the family, went barefoot. She made one concession to gracious living—a lipstick which she took along and used "to keep up my morale."

Once a day the family did exercises, capped by a big march around the shelter accompanied by the noise of banging on tins.

Vernon said this noise was "intolerable" over the microphones. "I don't know how they stood it,"

Injuries Fatal To LAFB Sgt.

Richard E. Montgomery, 23, a staff sergeant at Lockbourne Air Force Base, died at 1:40 a. m. today in University Hospital, Columbus, of injuries received in a traffic accident near here Sunday.

Montgomery, whose home is in Kalamazoo, N. Y., died of internal injuries. Deputy Sheriff east of Circleville at 1:15 a. m. Sunday.

The airman was rushed to Mercy Hospital, Columbus. He later was transferred to Lockbourne Base Hospital, then removed to University Hospital where he died.

Deputy Hoover, on the scene shortly after the accident, said Montgomery suffered a fractured left leg, a fractured left arm and internal injuries. He was listed in "critical" condition until time of death, the deputy said.

HOOPER said there were few details at the scene to explain how the accident happened. He said the Montgomery car was traveling east, went left of center and struck the culvert.

According to the deputy, the car was demolished and the north side of the culvert was destroyed. He said the victim's foot was pinned in the crash, requiring several minutes to free him.

Information received here disclosed that Montgomery is survived by his wife, Esther. The body was removed to the Gosnell Funeral Home, Columbus.

The death marked the sixth fatal accident on Pickaway County highways since January 1. Last year at this time only two traffic deaths had been recorded here.

Talks between teams representing the industry and the striking United Steelworkers of America recessed for the weekend last Friday as the stoppage became a month old. There was no indication of progress toward agreement on a new contract.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, is sitting in on the negotiations.

Two Republican senators announced they would introduce in the Senate today a resolution asking that President Eisenhower make public the facts about the strike that he possesses.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell has been acting as Eisenhower's fact-finder on the strike.

Sens. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) and George D. Aiken (R-Vt) said in a joint statement in Washington a substitute for a pending resolution that their resolution would be introduced by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and signed by 32 other Democratic senators.

In asking that the President make public at once a report by Mitchell, Javits and Aiken said such a move "should be able to crystallize the weight of public opinion to bring about a settlement of the strike or indicate what further steps may be taken to bring it about."

Javits and Aiken said their proposal that Eisenhower tell the public just what Mitchell has determined to date as fact-finder would omit the Symington resolution request that the President act as a mediator or make recommendations on settlement terms.

The judge's opinion also said: "It appears to be a growing tendency on the part of many traffic officers to use the serious charge of reckless operation as a catch-all when in fact a lesser and more specific charge should be used."

Today the judge found the defendant innocent. The judge said that while he felt the arresting officer made the charge in good faith, the defendant was not guilty as a matter of law. The judge said the defendant did not have counsel and erroneously pleaded guilty to the charge—that although it is not the duty of the court to act as defense counsel, "it is the sworn duty of every judge to ascertain that the rights of every defendant are protected."

Inter-Am Parley Hears Protest

Caribbean Tensions Studied by Envoys

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Haiti protested to the Inter-American Foreign Ministers Conference today against the invasion of that Negro republic by a small band of revolutionaries.

The Haitian delegation said the invaders, who terrorized a village after landing Thursday, are believed to have come from Cuba. Haitian troops are hunting them.

This was the first case of violence formally brought to the attention of the conference, called to discuss Caribbean tensions.

Haiti's foreign minister, Louis Mars, delivered the protest to Foreign Minister German Vergara Donoso of Chile, chairman of the conference.

The Haitian note, however, may be referred to the Organization of American States instead of being taken up formally by the ministers. Their meeting is scheduled to wind up Tuesday.

Mars declared Haiti is "the victim of aggression whose manifest objective is to alter public order and menace the stability of a constitutional government."

His complaint noted that about 30 men with long beards and green uniforms, who were possibly Cuban revolutionaries, had landed on Haiti's south coast.

Cuban Premier Fidel Castro's brother Raul was due in Santiago as the foreign ministers of Latin America and the United States argued final details of a compromise plan to calm the Caribbean.

The younger Castro's impact on the foreign ministers' talks — now in their sixth day—was likely to be light. It was not even certain he would appear before the conference. However, it was understood in Havana that he was bringing documents purporting to link the Dominican Republic's dictator, Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, with the anti-Castro conspiracy the Cuban regime says it uncovered last week.

The foreign ministers meanwhile hammered out agreement on a set of resolutions being presented to the conference's general committee. It was expected they would be signed at a final conference session Tuesday.

The key resolution would give the already existing Inter-American Peace Committee of the Organization of American States temporary powers to study "methods and procedures to prevent activities originating abroad designed to overthrow constituted governments."

The aim is to prevent such things as the invasion of Panama last April by about 100 men, mostly Cubans, recent invasions of Nicaragua from Costa Rica and Honduras, the Dominican campaign against Castro and Castro's against Trujillo.

The resolution balances this fire prevention agency urged by the United States with provisions to meet demands by Cuba and Venezuela for emphasis on strict observance of human rights and representative democracy and economic help for underdeveloped nations.

The United States is chairman of the peace committee. Other members are Venezuela, Uruguay, El Salvador and Mexico. The committee's findings will be reported to the regular Inter-American foreign ministers' conference scheduled to be held in Quito, Ecuador, next year.

Cops Seek Driver After Fatal Crash

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A hunt for an unidentified driver of a yellow car was intensified Sunday with the death of a trucker whose tractor-trailer the car is believed to have forced off a road near here last Thursday.

Frank B. Young, 49, of Dayton, died in a hospital here after suffering extensive burns and other injuries in the crash on Ohio 49 north of Phillipsburg. His tractor ignited and he was afire until a bystander tore his clothes off and wrapped him in a blanket.

County detectives said they had a witness who corroborated word from Young while semiconscious in the hospital that the yellow car caused the accident.

L.A. Democrat Ticket Fuss Said Solved

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler today was expected to announce an end to the ticket argument that threatened to cost Los Angeles the party's 1960 convention.

Republican Mayor Norris Poulson, denying a Chicago newspaper report that Los Angeles had withdrawn its offer to hold the convention, said: "I'm positive it will be held here."

Conspicuously absent from a conference scheduled late this afternoon will be wealthy oilman Edwin O. Pauley, credited by many with raising most of the $350,000 necessary to underwrite the convention costs.

Pauley returned to his home in the Hawaiian Islands Friday after an inconclusive meeting with Butler and the host committee.

Pauley insisted he was given a guarantee of 5,000 convention tickets in exchange for his fundraising efforts. That would be ten times more than any host city has ever received.

Butler says there was no guarantee.

"The host city can have 1,500 tickets and I don't mean 1,501," he said.

When it looked as if an impasse had been reached, Poulson suggested a compromise. Would Pauley accept 3,133 tickets? Pauley, an old friend of former President Harry S. Truman and no admirer of Butler, said he would.

Butler stood by his guns. He telephoned County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn last Wednesday and said he would begin shopping for a new convention site if Los Angeles did not agree to accept 1,500 tickets.

Segregation Leader Joins Church, Calms

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A man often accused of fomenting violence in Little Rock's 1957 integration crisis has joined a church and says the racial issue is now unimportant.

James T. Karam, 51, a clothier, said he joined the Baptist church. "To know Christ is so much more important than segregation or integration," Karam said of his new way of life.

CONGREGATION MOVES CHURCH WON IN DRAWING — Members of the Morning Star Baptist church in Muskegon, Mich., are moving a church they won in a unique drawing to a new site—piece by piece. One provision of the drawing was that the structure had to be moved to make way for a parking lot. The church was too wide to travel over city streets, so Rev. William Hunt and members of his congregation are "carrying" it.

Driver Cited Into Court for Intoxication

Traffic cases handled in Circleville Municipal Court Saturday and today included charges against a motorist for driving under the influence of intoxicants.

The count was against Curtis Reed, 47, of 228 Logan St., who was arrested by city police. He was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months.

The court named a heavy docket just as drivers cited for various other violations. Those arrested by the State highway patrol were:

William E. Atkins, 27, Columbus; $50 and costs for speeding at 70 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

James H. Moore, 21, Warren, Mich.; $25 and costs for speeding at 85 miles per hour.

Walter E. Spindler, 39, Chillicothe; Arnie Ains, 24, Columbus; Wayne Lobb, 24, Lockbourne Air Force Base, and Robert Foster Jr., 19, Columbus; each fined $25 and costs for speeding at 70 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Bluy V. Smith, 34, Columbus; $20 and costs for speeding at 70 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone and $5 and costs for passing in a hazardous zone.

Clyde Hicks, 27, Brumfield, Ind. and Darold M. Dugger, 19, Columbus; each fined $20 and costs for speeding at 70 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

William J. Tennant, 24, Youngstown; $15 and costs for speeding at 65 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

David C. Eakin, 20, Route 1, Circleville; $10 and costs for passing a stop sign.

Lawrence W. Carlier, 26, Cincinnati; $10 and costs for unsafe passing.

Calvin M. Mercer, 29, Springfield, and Marty W. Long, 30, Columbus; each fined $10 and costs for passing in a hazardous zone.

Ruby Lee Jenkins, 20, Columbus; $25 and costs for no operator's license.

France Demands Full Allied Backing

L'ILE BOUCHARD, France (AP)—Premier Michel Debre says France won't be pushed around by her allies any more and will demand they back up her war in Algeria all the way.

His speech sounded like a public preview of what President Charles de Gaulle will tell President Eisenhower when the two confer in private next month.

Debre spoke to his constituents Sunday in this Loire Valley village in west central France.

The premier, a faithful supporter of De Gaulle's goal of restoring the authority of France on the international scene, insisted this does not mean France is doomed to stand alone within the Western alliance.

He said De Gaulle's policy "is a reaction against the alliances which, through our weakness, led to our subjection to foreign powers which did not hesitate to oppose our essential interests."

Commenting that Algeria had been "created by us, that is to say by Frenchmen from our soil," the premier said "the destiny of France is linked with the Algerian destiny — everything changes for us according to whether we hold or do not hold on to this old territory."

"It is for renovated France to make her allies understand that she has the right to demand all their most complete support for a cause which goes far beyond a people and a generation."

The United States in recent years has refused to give France the full backing she wants for her Algerian policy. The Americans have tried to take a middle road, hoping they won't offend the French too much and at the same time trying not to anger the Asian and African nations who support the Algerian rebels.

De Gaulle also wants a voice equal to those of the United States and Britain in the decisions of the Atlantic Alliance — although France has pulled most of her troops out of Europe to fight in Algeria.

"To avoid being crushed by agreements between very great powers, a nation like France must be in a position to make itself heard and understood," he said.

The Eisenhower-Khrushchev exchange is the ostensible reason for the American president's visit to Paris next month. He also will go to London and Bonn to discuss Allied policy.

Dominican Aide Calls Castro Story 'Hoax'

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Fidel Castro's story of the capture of an arms-laden plane has been described as "one of the greatest swindles ever perpetrated on public opinion in the Americas."

Col. John Abbes Garcia, Dominican army intelligence chief, said Sunday the story is full of contradictions.

Kraho Indians in Brazil run relay races on holidays. They carry 20 to 200 pound logs as batons.

L.A. Democrat Ticket Fuss Said Solved

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler today was expected to announce an end to the ticket argument that threatened to cost Los Angeles the party's 1960 convention.

Republican Mayor Norris Poulson, denying a Chicago newspaper report that Los Angeles had withdrawn its offer to hold the convention, said: "I'm positive it will be held here."

Conspicuously absent from a conference scheduled late this afternoon will be wealthy oilman Edwin O. Pauley, credited by many with raising most of the $350,000 necessary to underwrite convention costs.

Pauley returned to his home in the Hawaiian Islands Friday after an inconclusive meeting with Butler and the host committee.

Pauley insisted he was given a guarantee of 5,000 convention tickets in exchange for his fundraising efforts. That would be ten times more than any host city has ever received.

Butler says there was no guarantee. "The host city can have 1,500 tickets and I don't mean 1,501," he said.

When it looked as if an impasse had been reached, Poulson suggested a compromise. Would Pauley accept 3,133 tickets? Pauley, an old friend of former President Harry S. Truman and no admirer of Butler, said he would.

Butler stood by his guns. He telephoned County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn last Wednesday and said he would begin shopping for a new convention site if Los Angeles did not agree to accept 1,500 tickets.

Segregation Leader Joins Church, Calms

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A man often accused of fomenting violence in Little Rock's 1957 integration crisis has joined a church and says the racial issue is now unimportant.

James T. Karam, 51, a clothier, said he joined the Baptist church. "To know Christ is so much more important than segregation or integration," Karam said of his new way of life.

Government Action Won't Come until There Is 'Emergency'

What has the steel strike done so far to the economy and when will it really hurt? In the following, first of a series of three articles, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, summarizes an Associated Press survey of present conditions.

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The government will step into the steel strike when it's a national emergency and not before. So says President Eisenhower. How long before the strike becomes a threat to the over-all economy?

A nation-wide survey by Associated Press reporters shows that—with few exceptions—users of steel are well stocked. Unemployment has hit transportation and mining industries closely tied to steel production.

But most steel users were able to lay in supplies from domestic or foreign mills. A few have been paying higher prices. A. O. Smith says it must close its pipe mill in Milwaukee now. Some other firms say they will run out of steel after Labor Day. More say they can hold out till October or later.

At Groton, Conn., the Electric Boat division of General Dynamics says it ordered steel so far in advance it can continue work on seven A-sub's for at least a year. In New York, General Dynamics says its other divisions have enough steel for at least another 60 days.

"The steel situation is going to get critical—like a tornado," says Marlow C. Hodge, owner of Steel Metal Products Inc. of Los Angeles, and vice president of the Sheet Metal Contractors Assn. of Southern California. "We know the danger is there because we can see it, but when?"

The auto industry, which uses about a fifth of all steel output, reports large stocks on hand because the strike seemed so sure for so long. It has an upcoming breather while no steel is being used during the model change-overs. Also the Detroit Steel Corp. isn't struck. And Ford's own steel plant isn't affected.

Appliance makers say the pinch may come in another month—although some can go still longer. A few put Labor Day as the trouble date.

In Pittsburgh, Westinghouse says its supplies of various steel products will last from 60 to 90 days. In New York, General Electric says various divisions have varying amounts and there may be some trading between plants.

Able to hold out for two months or more are: Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator, Whirlpool in St. Paul, Paper Calmenson & Co. in Minneapolis, Western Air and Refrigeration in Los Angeles.

Helped by a two-weeks vacation just ended, International Harvester of Chicago says it expects to run at least till the end of September. Hotpoint in the same city has a six to eight week supply. Fairbanks Morse may have trouble after August.

The International Business Machine plant in Lexington, Ky., has a four months supply. The American Can plant in Arlington, Tex., sees little trouble for several weeks. But in Kansas City, Butler Manufacturing, which makes tanks and farm equipment, says some plants may close early in September, and Black, Sivals and Bryson, which makes oil field equipment, says it can run through Labor Day.

In New York, Continental Can says its over-all steel tonnage is high, but demand for various kinds of cans varies widely, and its Chicago plant expects to feel the effect in October.

Supplies for another month or more are reported in New York

Lance Reventlow's Fiancee Labeled as No Glamorpuss

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What kind of a girl is rich boy Lance Reventlow marrying?

Jill St. John is a girl-next-door rather than a glamorpuss kind of beauty, with big hazel eyes and brick-colored hair. "I always have wished I wasn't red-headed so I could wear wild colors," she said. She has done a lot of living in her 18 years—radio actress at 6, high school graduate at 14, married at 16, divorced at 17.

She is bright, once discovered a UCLA that she has an I.Q. of 162. "But Lance is smarter than me. He's so smart it makes me sick."

She is a bright conversationalist, reads two or three books a week. "Best sellers, mostly. Lance and I read 'Dr. Zhivago' together and we both thought it was plodding and dull. Some people think you have to praise a book because it won prizes. I don't."

She digs classical music and she and Lance spend Tuesday and Thursday nights at the Hollywood Bowl symphonies. "We can seldom find friends to share the box with us; people in Hollywood don't go for the longhair music."

She is no longer concerned about her future husband's safety. "Lance does all the dangerous sports. He skin-dives, he flies, he skis on the water and snow, he rides a motorbike and he has raced cars all over the world. But he has never broken a bone. That proves that he understands the dangers he is up against."

She is not awed by his money. "He isn't as rich as people think he is. Besides, my parents are not exactly eating at the mission. I have always been well cared for."

She has one extravagance: shoes. "I'm crazy for shoes, and unfortunately, the store I like sells them for $37-45 apiece. I've 150 pairs. I can't help it; I just like high-heeled shoes."

She has had starring roles in two films and is devoted to her acting career. "It's a gas! I can't think of a more fun way to earn a living. Lance wants me to continue with it, and there's no reason I shouldn't. I'm making some progress now; my career is catching up with my publicity."

Methodists Vote Against Buying Land

The congregation of Circleville First Methodist Church yesterday voted overwhelmingly against purchase of land for the building of an entire new church plant.

Las Vegas Hotel Sold For $10 Million Plus

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—New York real estate investor Lawrence A. Wien has bought Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn in a deal involving more than 10 million dollars.

Clark and his associates will continue to manage the 200-acre property on an initial 20-year lease. He has subsequent options terminating in the year 2022.

Wien's group has real estate holdings valued at more than 600 million dollars, the hotel's publicity agent said. Earlier this year he acquired the Plaza Hotel in New York for 21 million dollars.

chase of land for the building of an entire new church plant.

Instead, the church has decided to find some other solution for relieving its overcrowded Sunday School facilities. Richard Plum, general superintendent of the church school, indicated that since the need is immediate, the search for a solution to the problem also will be immediate.

In yesterday's open meeting, adult members of the church voted against buying a tract of land on N. Pickaway St. adjacent to Hargus Creek.

The vote was 196 against purchase, 54 for.

The tract, which once was sought by the Kroger Co., as the site for a supermarket, is about acres. It is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rader, Mrs. Muri Thornton, Dudley Carpenter and James Carpenter. Total asking price was $24,000.

The Rev. Paul I. Wachs, pastor of the church, presided at the conference which was held in two sections—one after each of the two Sunday morning worship services.

Memorize This Gin Ad and Recite It at Parties

Up until the time of which we speak, gin has been forced to flee the still with plenty of rough spots in it. Embarrassed and chagrined, distillers hide these defects with various perfumes and other aromatics.

But now the jigger is up! There's a new gin (ours, silly!) as smooth and dry as the Sphinx's tongue. You can make a Martini with just the gin and ice—ending the vermouth argument once and for all. Or you can sip it straight with a little smile on your face.

We call it Smooth American Gin—by Schenley. When we don't feel up to that, we just say "S.A." It's the finest gin you've ever tasted. And it's ours, all ours! Make it yours. Today! Smooth American Gin by Schenley!

Rapid Social Mobility

Many families, beset by the congestion, grime and turmoil of big cities, dream of escaping to the suburbs. There they are sure they will find more healthful and pleasing surroundings, tranquility, a relaxed peace.

How closely reality approaches the dream may depend on whether they move into slow-growth, moderate-growth, or fast-growing communities. This is suggested in a report by Dr. and Mrs. Richard E. Gordon in the American Medical Association Journal. The Gordons studied hospital admissions records for these three types of suburbs.

Of the three, the fast-growth example showed the highest percentage of patients with coronary thrombosis, duodenal ulcer, essential hypertension and hypertensive cardiovascular disease. All this springs from something called "rapid social mobility," which seems to mean what was formerly referred to as "keeping up with the Joneses."

It is not explained why everyone in such towns is not overcome by psychosomatic ills. Apparently the human spirit can endure a lot of frustration. The Gordon report should console those who cannot join the flight from the cities. Urban and suburban environments both have their discomforts and both create emotional strain of one kind or another.

You Think Wife Is Expensive?

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

You think your wife is expensive? Mme. Pompadour, famous 18th century French mistress, is reported to have spent $100,000 a year on perfume alone, just to smell nice for King Louis XV.

Feeling tired and rundown? Why not try a wonder drug popular with the ancient Greeks? They thought you'd have good health and long life if you drank a portion of wine, cloves, and hippopotamus fat. Either red or white wine will do, but be sure the hippopotamus fat is properly chilled.

How times change! Comic George de Witt says he saw a late movie on television that was so old the Germans were bad guys!

The Schick electric razor people just got a shock. A poll they made disclosed 200,000 U.S. men now wear beards, and the number is growing.

Incidentally, can you name the first American president with a beard? It was Abraham Lincoln, who at 50 started letting his whiskers sprout after an 11-year-old girl had written and suggested a beard would make him look more dignified.

Latest fad-of-the-week in Greenwich Village? Dyeing eyebrows a color different from the hair.

When you enter a store for the first time, in which direction do you turn? About 79 per cent of Americans instinctively turn to the right.

Facts that will get you nowhere: You spend as much energy in opening and closing your eyes in a year as it would take to hoist an 8-year-old child to your shoulder once.

You can't get a ride in a two-tone gondola in Venice. These water-borne taxis, in use there for nearly a thousand years, are traditionally painted black.

In most of Europe convicts aren't given an added sentence for trying to make a prison break. Their desire to escape is taken as normal.

Old gags never die: Singer Lisa Kirk tells of the indignant woman who complained to the zookeeper that the monkeys were gambling at cards. "It's all right," soothed the keeper. "They're only playing for peanuts."

A democracy has been described as a country in which you can call the president anything you want to, but you have to be polite to the traffic cops.

Speaking of traffic cops, never tell them, "I'm sorry." For some reason — probably because they feel it is usually insincere — this is the phrase that infuriates them most.

If your wife wonders why she is getting fat, tell her this: She is probably still eating as much as her mother did. But, where her mother needed 3,000 calories to get through the day, she herself needs only 2,000 calories because modern home appliances make her life so much easier.

On the other hand, if you like to keep your home life happy, don't tell your wife any such thing. We're still the talkingest people on earth. The world now has about 120 million telephones, of which 63 million are in the United States.

It was John Ruskin who observed: "There is no wealth but life."

It is perhaps uncharitable to talk about a sick man in this way, but those who have had Foster's illnesses know that a man can do a great amount of hard work despite a cardiac condition. Modern treatment for such illnesses places almost no limitation upon the kind of work that Foster does, none of which is physical work of any kind.

As a matter of fact, the more the patient keeps busy and stops worrying about himself, the better are his chances of a fair recovery. I can testify from personal experience that a pretty severe case of this sort, to which was added a cancer operation, made me years younger and gayer and stronger. President Eisenhower surely is proof of what can be done. Of course, each case is individual, but Foster has been doing pretty well during the years that he managed to stay out of jail on the plea of illness.

It would seem to me that Foster's cry baby act does not prove any point but that he wants to go to Russia. If they will have him, after he stands trial here for whatever infamies he has committed, why not let him go there. When he dies perhaps they will stick his remains in the Kremlin Wall along with those of John Reed. There was once a person who was called "A Man Without a Country." Maybe that is Foster's ambition. Or is his country really Soviet Russia despite the undeniable fact that he was born and reared in the United States and has lived here in freedom?

Why does not Foster base his plea on truthful and realistic grounds? Why does he not say that he desires to die in Soviet Russia so that his ashes may be placed in the Kremlin Wall? Why does he not say that he fears to go to an American hos-

JACK BENNY believes that the biggest, most sustained roar of laughter he ever evoked on TV came the evening an actor portraying a bandit poked a gun in his ribs and snarled, "Your money or your life?"

When Benny didn't answer, he repeated, "I said your money or your life." Benny registered his famous long-take, then answered, "I know, I know. I'm just trying to make up my mind."

On another Benny TV program, Jack was stopped by a lady who babbled, "Pardon me, my good man, but do you know the way to the public library?"

"I do not," admitted Benny. "Well," said the lady, "you go straight down this avenue for three blocks and then turn to the right. You can't miss it!"

Myron Cohen wishes it to be known that he's fed up with mother-in-law jokes. "I've got the sweetest, most considerate little mother-in-law in the world," he insists. "It's my wife I hate!"

School Child Needs Medical

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

In another couple of weeks millions of children across the country will be heading for classrooms again, and for many of these youngsters it will be a big adventure, the beginning of their school years.

If your child is among those going off to kindergarten or first grade for the first time, make sure he's ready physically.

It's a good idea to give him a complete physical examination right now. The first week or so in school is a strain for almost any child. If he's in tiptop condition to start with, he is more apt to come through the ordeal unscathed.

Every youngster should be immunized against polio, smallpox, diphtheria and tetanus before he enters school, if at all possible. While your child may already have received inoculations against these diseases, he may need a booster shot by this time. Better see what your doctor advises.

A trip to the dentist is in order, too.

Of course a child of kindergarten or first grade age should by now be able to brush his teeth properly. If he eats the noon meal in school, it is suggested that he rinse his mouth after he has finished eating.

Since he will be surrounded by children for several hours of the school day, caution him to cover his mouth and nose when he has to cough or sneeze.

Start putting him to bed a little earlier to be certain he gets enough rest. Let him play outdoors as much as possible, and you may want to call him in early enough to permit him to watch television quietly for a little while before bedtime.

In case you have developed the habit of sleeping late during the

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, watching the Soviet rush to come abreast of the United States, feels this country needs some driving urge to think less of leisure and money and more of work and achievement.

So, before setting out for Moscow later this year to return Premier Nikita Khrushchev's mid-September visit here, Eisenhower's thinking is being influenced by the Soviet efforts.

He is very conscious of those efforts. This may be why earlier this year, in his State of the Union message, he proposed creating a committee to suggest goals for America.

The President is now ready—although he hasn't said so publicly—to name this committee as soon as he can get private organizations to pay for its work. He doesn't want the government to foot the bill.

Eisenhower is known to think that national goals might give us an incentive toward which to work, just as the Soviet Union has had its five and seven-year plans.

He looks upon those Soviet plans, which keep the people hard at work, as the moral equivalent of war.

He thinks we need something in this country as an incentive to get our minds on accomplishment and not on a shorter work week and more leisure.

We must attach more importance, he thinks, to good, hard work and less to progress by demagoguery or trying to make a million.

On the short work week, he recalls wartime talks with a French professor who said the cause of France's defeat in 1940 came from trying to match a French four-day week against Hitler's seven-day week.

The President, remembering Edward Gibbon's "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," thinks that is what is happening to us now, that we are too interested in leisure and pleasure.

That's a gloomy view for a president. It seems to be overlooking one thing: that Gibbon's criterion for judging civilization and progress was the measure in which men's happiness is secured, and of that happiness he considered political freedom an essential condition.

So, while the Soviets have made material strides, their lack of freedom is the opposite of Gibbon's conception of happiness, while to Gibbon the freedom enjoyed by Americans would be a mark of progress, civilization, and happiness.

But Eisenhower seems to have varying views on the Soviet Union at various times.

While at one time he considers the seven-year plan as the moral equivalent of war and is impressed by the work it gets done, at another time he notes that to increase production, the Communists must offer incentives, like extra pay.

There is, of course, an essential difference between Khrushchev's seven-year plan and any American goals thought up by a study committee.

One is mandatory in a Soviet where the state has absolute control over the people and the means of production; the other would have to be voluntary in a free enterprise system.

Khrushchev, for instance, can order Soviet steel production capacity doubled and at the same time not only can find a ready market for every ounce of steel produced but decide where and for what it shall be used.

No matter what goals a president's committee proposes, the steel industry is free to increase its capacity only as there is a free and competitive market for its product.

Eisenhower never precisely explained in his State of the Union message just what goals he had in mind. Presumably, he would let his committee figure this out.

He said the committee would be concerned with living standards, health, education, greater assurance of life, liberty and opportunities, and methods to meet such goals, and what state, federal and local governments should be concerned.

New Ranch Type Home Built for Pride and Privacy

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Today's ranch home has every convenience needed to make living easy, comfortable and convenient. The Melrose is a three-bedroom plan with well-designed living and sleeping quarters.

Each of the corner bedrooms is exceptionally large. Twin beds could be used in these rooms, leaving space to spare for bureaus, desk units and other furnishings. One of these bedrooms, at front, has its own private bath — and just look at that wall-length wardrobe! It's large enough to take summer clothes and store winter ones at the same time.

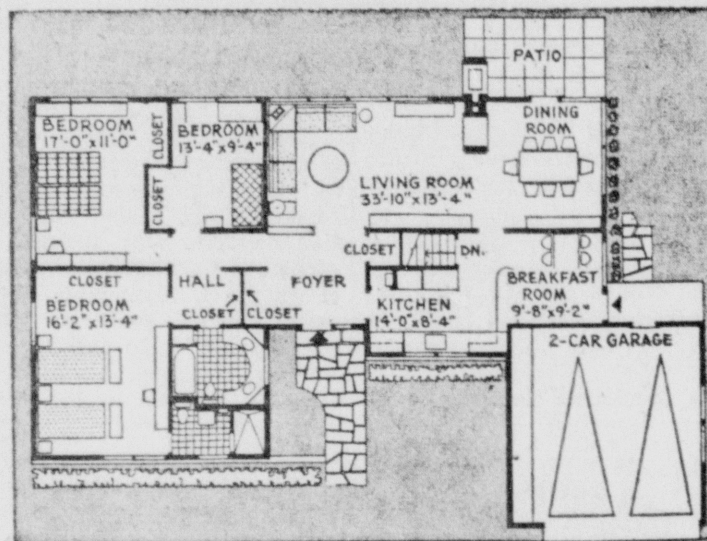

The third bedroom, at back, is smaller but, even so, it takes a single bed with ease and has space for a desk and bureau. It, too, offers good closet space.

Outside the main bath, two additional closets serve special storage requirements.

The living room and dining room adjoin, separated only by a two-way fireplace. Considered together, these rooms make a grand area for entertaining a large group. As an added decorative feature, the living room's back wall is glass, presenting a grand view of the garden. From the dining room, a door leads out to the terrace.

The kitchen, at front, provides a step-saving plan. Appliances and cabinets are set up, corridor style, on opposite walls.

A work counter divides the kitchen from a cozy dinette area that's perfect for informal family meals. A side service entry opens into the dinette, which is also close to the

Symington, Kennedy Tied As Choice of Ohio's Dems

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Stuart Symington (Mo) and John F. Kennedy (Mass) were the choice of Ohio Democrats for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination in a poll by Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio). Symington and Kennedy tied for first place with 115 votes each in replies submitted to a questionnaire Young's office sent to more than 1,200 Ohio Democrats.

Adlai Stevenson, twice-defeated Democratic candidate, rated third with 65 votes and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) came next with 36 first choice votes.

Other choices: Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, 12 first place votes; Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn), 9, and Gov. Pat

Brown of California and Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, 3 each.

Young said he was "surprised and delighted" that a number of persons selected him to go to the Democratic convention as Ohio's favorite son. But, he added, he will not consider becoming such a candidate and may not even seek to become a delegate to the convention.

In the favorite son poll, Young rated second to Gov. Michael V. DiSalle who received 152 votes. Young was given 48 first choice votes. Third place went to Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio) who had 39.

The Ohioans preferred, by 210-143, that top contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination enter the Ohio presidential preference primary.

They voted 254-88 in favor of Ohio's delegation going to the Democratic national convention uncommitted other than to support a favorite son on early ballots.

Economic policy — including debt, inflation, budget and taxes — was chosen as the most important issue in the 1960 elections.

A 206-133 vote was recorded against raising the highway gasoline tax by 1½ cents per gallon to keep the road building program on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Increased spending for space exploration and development of space platforms was approved 165-148. More extensive distribution of farm surplus products to poor people and to the "have-not" nations was approved 359-9.

Toledoan Off on New Cloak-Dagger Mission for Cuban Revolution Chief

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Maj. William Morgan, the adventurous American who has emerged as a cloak-and-dagger strongarm in Fidel Castro's Cuban army, was revealing signs of his daring spirit when he was only three.

At that tender age, neighbors of his family in Toledo spotted little Billy Morgan toddling resolutely down his street with a handful of personal treasures wrapped in a handkerchief.

"I go to New York to see Major Bowes," the boy explained indignantly to his astounded mother, referring to the late star of a radio amateur show.

"That boy hasn't given me a moment's peace since then," says Mrs. A. W. Morgan, wife of a retired electric utility company executive. "That's why my hair is gray."

Now 30, Morgan has become a soldier-of-fortune, a hero of the Cuban revolution and a key man in Castro's defense against the current attempts to overthrow his government.

Twice during the present trouble Morgan masqueraded as a Castro foe to foil counter revolutionary plots.

In the first feat, he was credited with nipping an invasion attempt before it ever reached Cuba. As a "deserter," reports said, he talked with anti-Castro agents by secret radio and then boldly went to the Dominican Republic to announce he would take arms and volunteers back to Cuba.

When the invasion force was at sea, Morgan and other phony deserters turned on the would-be invaders and forced them to land at a spot where they were seized by authorities.

One report said the Dominican Republic gave Morgan $52,000 for use against Castro.

Friday, a Cuban military spokesman said Morgan again had assumed the pose of a conspirator to trick an arms-laden plane from the Dominican Republic into landing Thursday night at Trinidad airport where it was seized in a gunfight.

Morgan's mother disclosed Friday that he made a secret trip to

Union Signs New Pact With Republic Rubber

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) —

Local 102 of the United Rubber Workers Union has given overwhelming approval to a new contract with the Republic Rubber Division of Lee Tire & Rubber Co.

The two-year agreement, approved Sunday, provides increased pensions, improved working conditions and higher supplemental unemployment benefits, according to Carl Samuels, president of the local. Maximum benefits under the SUB plan now will be $30 a week, a $5 increase. The workers remained on their jobs after the contract expired May 1.

Toledo by commercial plane a month ago to visit his parents.

"I asked him what kind of trouble he was getting into now and he said there wasn't any more trouble," Mrs. Morgan recalled. "But a mother knows, and there wasn't a speck of identification. Why, he must have known even then he was going to pull that trick in the Dominican Republic."

That one-day trip to Toledo marked the first time Morgan's parents had seen him since he left here just before Christmas in 1957 to join Castro's rebels. He had learned then that a friend was killed by Cuban secret police while smuggling arms to the rebels.

Left behind here when he joined Castro were his first wife, Theresa and their children—a girl, now 3, and a boy, 1.

A year ago, his first wife obtained a divorce on grounds of desertion. Last December, Morgan married a Cuban school teacher.

"Maybe this will give you some idea what he was like as a boy," said his mother. "When the other boys were playing baseball, he was sitting around reading adventure stories. He simply couldn't wait to get out in the world himself."

"By the time he was 16," Mrs. Morgan continued, "his dad and I knew it was no use trying to keep him at home anymore. We signed the necessary papers and he joined the merchant marine."

Morgan later enlisted in the U.S. Army and served in Japan, receiving his discharge in 1950.

After that, said his mother, he studied electronics himself and started a small electronics firm which he operated briefly in Toledo and Dayton.

Since January, Morgan had been phoning his parents from Havana about twice a week. The phone calls stopped abruptly two weeks ago.

"I was worried sick," said Mrs. Morgan. "I even called Havana myself, but they told me they didn't know where he was. I thought someone had shot him."

Then, Friday night, the phone rang in the Morgan home. "It was Bill!" said his mother. "He said he was fine and not to worry. It was wonderful to hear his voice. Oh, why do I have to have a son like him?"

Football Ready for Entry Into Local Sports Scene

That old familiar ring of football will fill the air here Thursday when the 1959 Circleville High School gridiron edition takes the field for the first of many practice sessions.

New and old faces will grace both the coaching staff and the grid squad picture this year. Foremost is the assumption of command by Carl K. Benhase, new CHS mentor.

Coach Benhase comes here from Berne Union High School where he established a fine record of 21 wins, three losses and three ties for three seasons. He returned here yesterday after serving on the South coaching staff for the Ohio High School All-Star football classic held Saturday in Canton.

First indications of football for local candidates come Tuesday when juniors and seniors report at the school for equipment issue at 9 a. m. and freshmen and sophomores at 2 p. m. Physical examinations will be held at 7 p. m. the same day. Gridders are requested to bring their insurance fee when they report for medicals.

COACH Benhase will gather his hopefuls at 2 p. m. Wednesday for a pre-practice orientation. Actual practice starts Thursday at the S. Court St. Elementary School field. The Tiger gridriders' first game is scheduled September 18 at Athens. The first home tilt is slated September 25 when Columbus Rosary comes here.

Coach Benhase said plenty of practice is in store for his charges prior to the Athens opener. On September 4 the Tigers will participate in the Annual Band Mothers Preview here, with both the varsity and reserve squads slated for action.

S-Ville Nine Downs Darby

Winners Coast In 24-Hit Attack

Stoutsville went on a hitting spree here yesterday to down Darby, 21-7, in a Southwestern Ohio Baseball League contest.

The strong pitching of Joe Adkins, plus a 24-hit attack by his mates was more than enough for the victory. The local hurler allowed seven hits, fanned 10 and walked five.

Stoutsville's batting splurge was paced by Don Morrison who had a perfect 7-7 day at the plate. He smacked a triple, two doubles and four singles, plus driving in four runs, scoring four and stealing four bases.

Stoutsville players marched to the plate 48 official times. James, Bailey and Knecht each had a double for the winners and Liff had a two-bagger for the losers. Maynard and Knecht each drove in four markers.

NANCE was the strongest hitter for Darby, collecting three bingles in five official trips. Rolley, Hughes and Hix handled hurling duties for Darby.

Stoutsville tallied one run in the second, eight in the third, one in the fourth, four in the seventh and seven in the eighth.

Adkins now has a 2-0 record since joining the Stoutsville outfit recently. Stoutsville, scheduled for a bye next Sunday, meets Frankfort the following Sunday. Frankfort won the league's first round without a defeat.

Darby's batting line-up was: Morrison 2b, 101; Cox ss, 101; Hix p, 1b; Rolley p, 1b; St. Louis, 101; Maynard, 101; Knecht, 101; Bailey, 101; Hughes, 101; Adkins, 101; Good, 101; Ron Gussert, 101.

On September 11 the locals travel to Lancaster for a grid preview with the Golden Gales. Practice games with other schools also probably will be scheduled before school starts.

Gone from the local grid scene this year will be the likes of Walt Arledge, Asa Elsea, Brent Bell, Dick Bircher, Tom Greeno, Rick Greenlee, Dick Gerhardt, Bill Perkins, Ray Phifer, Gary Winner, Roger Wolfe and Jim Woods.

Back for another year of grid warfare will be such performers as co-captains Harold Arledge and Dave Smith, linebacker and quarterback respectively, hardhitting fullback Larry Hannahs, bruising tackle Harry Strawser, Guard Dave Huffner, and Rupert R. D. Halfbacks Archie Ward and Gary Vandemark, Linemen Ernie Lindsey and Dan Leonhardt, Ends Leo Moats and Steve Yost, Center Joe Rooney and Tackle Bruce Dresbach.

Also coming up for service will be some promising freshmen and sophomores.

WCH smacked the horsehide for 12 safeties, including home runs by R. Wood, Brandon and Rodger. Lutz fanned two and walked none. Bass sent third strikes past five — walked two, Copeland fanned three and walked none. Warner, the winner, whiffed seven and walked none.

Circleville played errorless ball, while Washington C. H. committed one bobbie.

Local All-Stars Take 9-2 Loss At Washington

The Circleville Major League All-Stars suffered a 9-2 loss to the host Washington C. H. All-Stars Saturday night.

Four runs in the first inning, two in third and three in the fourth by Washington were too much for the locals to overcome. Both Circleville runs came in the third frame.

Jeff Lutz started for the local stars, but lasted only 2-3 of an inning after giving up six hits and four runs. David Bass came on to hurl 4-1-3 frames before giving way to Tom Copeland who twirled the last stanza.

The Circleville All-Stars collected four hits, two of them by Jeff Lutz who smashed a double and single. Jim Wells and Copeland had the other two bingles, both one-baggers.

WCH smacked the horsehide for 12 safeties, including home runs by R. Wood, Brandon and Rodger. Lutz fanned two and walked none. Bass sent third strikes past five — walked two, Copeland fanned three and walked none. Warner, the winner, whiffed seven and walked none.

Tittle Shows Delayed Heroics

Frisco QB Pulls Game Out of Fire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Y. A. Tittle, San Francisco's balding quarterback with a penchant for last-second heroics, is a leading exponent of the blitzkrieg attack in the National Football League.

Four exhibition games were played during the weekend. Each was a heart-palpitator. Each was a toss-up. Each was won in the last period with electrifying plays.

Tittle's was the most prominent example of the blitzkrieg and the most dramatic.

The 49ers trailed Washington 24-20. The stadium clock showed 59 seconds remaining. Tittle began to formulate moves. The 13-year pro veteran picked rookie Paul Lowe of Oregon State for the yeoman's share of the running duties. The 178-pounder responded with a key 40-yard scamper.

Nine seconds remained four plays later. Tittle had his forces massed on the Redskins 16. He faded back, picked out end Clyde Conner and fired a pass for the touchdown that gave the 49ers a 27-24 victory in their debut under new Coach Red Hickey.

It was the same story Saturday Zeke Bratkowski's toss to Rick Casares with 41 seconds remaining gave the Chicago Bears a 19-16 victory over Green Bay. John Crow went 71 yards for a TD in the final three minutes as Chicago's Cardinals edged Detroit 21-19. A 43-yard jaunt by Walt Kowalczyk midway of the final period provided the winning margin as Philadelphia defeated New York 21-17.

New Ranch Type Home Built for Pride and Privacy

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Today's ranch home has every convenience needed to make living easy, comfortable and convenient. The Melrose is a three-bedroom plan with well-designed living and sleeping quarters.

Each of the corner bedrooms is exceptionally large. Twin beds could be used in these rooms, leaving space to spare for bureaus, desk units and other furnishings. One of these bedrooms, at front, has its own private bath — and just look at that wall-length wardrobe! It's large enough to take summer clothes and store winter ones at the same time.

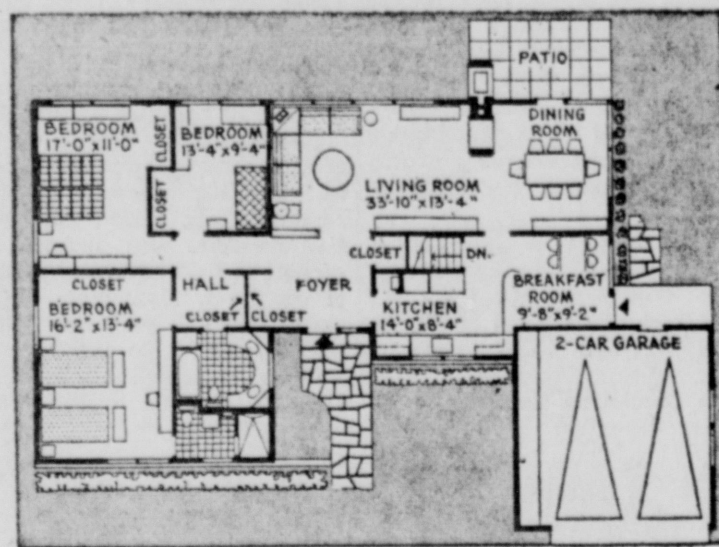

The third bedroom, at back, is smaller but, even so, it takes a single bed with ease and has space for a desk and bureau. It, too, offers good closet space.

Outside the main bath, two additional closets serve special storage requirements.

The living room and dining room adjoin, separated only by a two-way fireplace. Considered together, these rooms make a grand area for entertaining a large group. As an added decorative feature, the living room's back wall is glass, presenting a grand view of the garden. From the dining room, a door leads out to the terrace.

The kitchen, at front, provides a step-saving plan. Appliances and cabinets are set up, corridor style, on opposite walls.

A work counter divides the kitchen from a cozy dinette area that's perfect for informal family meals. A side service entry opens into the dinette, which is also close to the LIVING AND DINING ROOM are combined, as are kitchen and dinette. The home has three bedrooms and two bathrooms.

stairway leading to the full basement. The Melrose comprises 31,248 cubic feet; the first floor plan occupies 1,736 square feet.

A two-car garage completes the plan.

FLOODS HIT EUROPE—Flood waters rise to the windows of the first floor of a house in Nauhaus, Germany. Note the people gathered at the windows of the building. Meanwhile, in Austria, the death toll rose as the worst floods to hit that country in 62 years caused millions of dollars of damage in the eastern sections of that country. At least seven Austrians drowned. At bottom is an aerial photo of an autobahn bridge about to collapse into the Salzach River, north of Salzburg.

Ernie Banks Heads For His Second MVP Award in NL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ernie Banks, Chicago's slugging shortstop, may become the first player in National League history to be voted the circuit's most valuable player in two years in succession.

Two National Leaguers — Stan Musial and Roy Campanella — won the coveted honor three times and two others — Rogers Hornsby and Carl Hubbell — won it twice but nobody has done it twice in succession.

Banks strengthened his claim Sunday, banging a two-run homer — his 36th of the season — as the Cubs defeated the San Francisco Giants 5-4 for their third victory in the four-game series. Ernie also was on base when Lee Walls smashed a three-run homer off loser Johnny Antonelli to break a 2-2 tie.

Ernie, batting .312, leads both leagues with 112 runs batted in and is tied for the lead with Washington's Harmon Killebrew in home runs. Last year he led both leagues with 47 home runs and 129 runs batted in.

Despite the defeat, the Giants retained their 2½ game lead over Los Angeles when St. Louis defeated the Dodgers 5-3. Milwaukee's third place Braves split with Pittsburgh, winning the second game of a doubleheader 5-2 after the Pirates had won the opener 2-1. Philadelphia swept a twin bill from Cincinnati 8-5 and 6-0.

Banks was an unexpected starter. He had been hit on the back by a pitch Saturday and doctors said it would be several days before Ernie would be able to play.

Bob Anderson was the winner but he needed help in the eighth with two runners on base. Willie Mays drove in two Giant runs with his 21st homer.

Larry Jackson pitched a 10-hitter as the Cards evened the four-game series with Los Angeles. Bill White and rookie Gene Oliver drove in all St. Louis' runs. White knocked in two with a single and his 11th homer. Oliver had a two-run single and a sacrifice fly. Roger Craig was the loser. Four were ejected in the argument-filled game, manager Solly Hemus, Don Blasingame and Ken Boyer of the Cards and Duke Snider of the Dodgers.

Bob Friend, after seven failures, finally won his 100th game, fifth of the season. The Pirates' 22-game winner of 1958 was tagged for 11 hits in the opener but his mates helped him with three double plays and relief pitcher Bob Porterfield came to his rescue in the ninth when the Braves got their lone run. Dick Stuart drove in both Pittsburgh runs off Juan Pizarro with a homer. Warren Spahn won the second for the Braves, doling out eight hits for his 16th triumph. Rookie Lee Mays and Frank Torre, with two hits and two runs each, paced the Braves' nine-hit attack.

They laughed last winter when Boston owner Tom Yawkey traded Jimmy Piersall, his flashy center fielder, to Cleveland for Gary Geiger, a nondescript flycatcher and Vic Wertz, a fading first baseman.

Joe Cronin, then the Red Sox general manager, and Mike Higginson, then the field manager, were in no mood for laughter. They were quite upset when Yawkey informed them of the deal — the first and only one he ever made.

"It's your club," was the substance of their lukewarm acceptance of the boss' trade.

"I'll take the responsibility," said Yawkey.

The Red Sox owner can take the bows today for one of the best player transactions ever made by the club.

Geiger, only 22, has easily been the happiest development in the Red Sox' rebuilding program. The fast-developing youngster is hitting .279 with 10 home runs and 38 runs batted in. Wertz, though hampered by injuries, is hitting .280 with seven homers and 45 runs batted in. Piersall, who lost the regular center field job in Cleveland to Tito Francona, is hitting only .240 with three home runs and 21 runs batted in.

Geiger and Wertz played key roles in the Red Sox near-sweep of a four-game series with the New York Yankees. It wasn't their fault that the Yankees won the second game Sunday, 4-2, after the Red Sox had won the opener, 6-5.

Kansas City defeated Chicago 7-2 and narrowed the White Sox' first place lead over Cleveland to three games. The Indians lost an opportunity to pick up more ground when a violent rainstorm in Detroit postponed their game in the second inning after they had scored five runs in the first. Washington whipped Baltimore 6-1.

Prison's Cow Records High Butterfat Count

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Here's a cow that is contented in captivity.

Bossy is an inmate of the Windsor State Prison Farm. She produced 102 pounds of butterfat in May to lead Windsor County in the field, says agricultural agent Bill Stone.

Her name, since she is a prison cow, is a number: 1571.

Bears are near-sighted, but their keen senses of hearing and smell make up for this deficiency.

Weatherman Interferes With Indians

DETROIT (AP)—The Cleveland Indians, still grumbling over the weatherman's interference in the American League pennant race, meet the Detroit Tigers today—a day they figured could be used for resting up.

The loss of rest didn't hurt as much as the loss of five runs, though.

The Indians took a 5-0 lead in the first inning of Sunday's game. A torrential downpour washed out the contest in the second inning. The umpires, realizing the importance of the game, waited one hour and 45 minutes before calling it off.

"I was afraid something like this would happen," moaned general manager Frank Lane. "I knew a five-run lead was too good to be true."

The Indians have no more dates scheduled in Detroit, so the game was rescheduled for the normally off day.

Cleveland gained a half-game in its bid to overtake Chicago when the White Sox lost at Kansas City and had their first place margin reduced to 3 games.

Detroit and Cleveland start from scratch today with the same pitchers. Gary Bell (13-9) goes after his sixth straight triumph against Paul Foytack (10-10) for the Tigers.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Your Wife Is an Angel

DEAR ABBY: My wife has an unusual hobby. She is a "match-maker." She keeps a little book of names, listing widows, divorcees and eligible men. She marks down how old they are and what they have to offer. She has made several good matches, but I want her to cut out this matchmaking business because she never gets thanked — only blamed if something goes wrong.

She claims there is nothing wrong with getting people together who could be interested in each other. I say she's foolish. If you agree with me, Abby, please print your answer.

DEAR LESTER: I hope you never know what it is to be lonely. Your wife is an angel! The only legitimate way a single woman can meet a respectable, eligible man (and vice versa) is through good friends. You should be proud of your wife. There are rickier hobbies.

DEAR ABBY: When a person is under the influence of liquor, does it make him tell the truth or does it help him to lie better? DORIS

DEAR DORIS: The effects of liquor vary with the individual, there is no dependable rule. If you can't believe him when he's sober, don't rely on him to tell the truth when he's drunk.

DEAR ABBY: I am desperate. My trouble is too many kids. At the age of 19 I married a widower with three small kids. I am 27 years old and have eight of my own. That makes eleven! Believe me, I am worn out. I have no mother or mother-in-law to help me. I feel like 60 instead of 27. Abby.

The only rest I've had in 8 years are the three days I spend in the hospital when I go to have a baby. Don't tell me to go to the Planned Parenthood Center because my husband gets boiling mad every time I mention it. He has no religion so that is not the reason. I have no religion either. Please help me. I am not able to support myself, but if you tell me to leave him, I will.

WORN-OUT

DEAR WORN: Stay with him only on the condition that he agrees to let you go to the Planned Parenthood Center for advice. If he refuses — separate roofs. He has to support you and the children anyway.

DEAR ABBY: About 9 months ago my beloved wife passed away. We had a beautiful marriage that lasted 32 years. I am 55 years old and terribly lonely. I would like some companionship to take my mind off my loss. This is rather a "small town" and I don't want to be talked about. How long should I wait before being seen in the company of another woman?

LONELY

DEAR LONELY: The accepted mourning period is one year. I don't recommend a two-month type date until after the customary mourning period has passed.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Miss Ohio Set for Five Appearances

Five personal appearances are scheduled for Miss Ohio, Carole Weiler, in the next 10 days.

Carole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weiler, 204 N. Pickaway St., will appear at the Ohio Valley Interstate Fair, Huntington, W. Va. tomorrow.

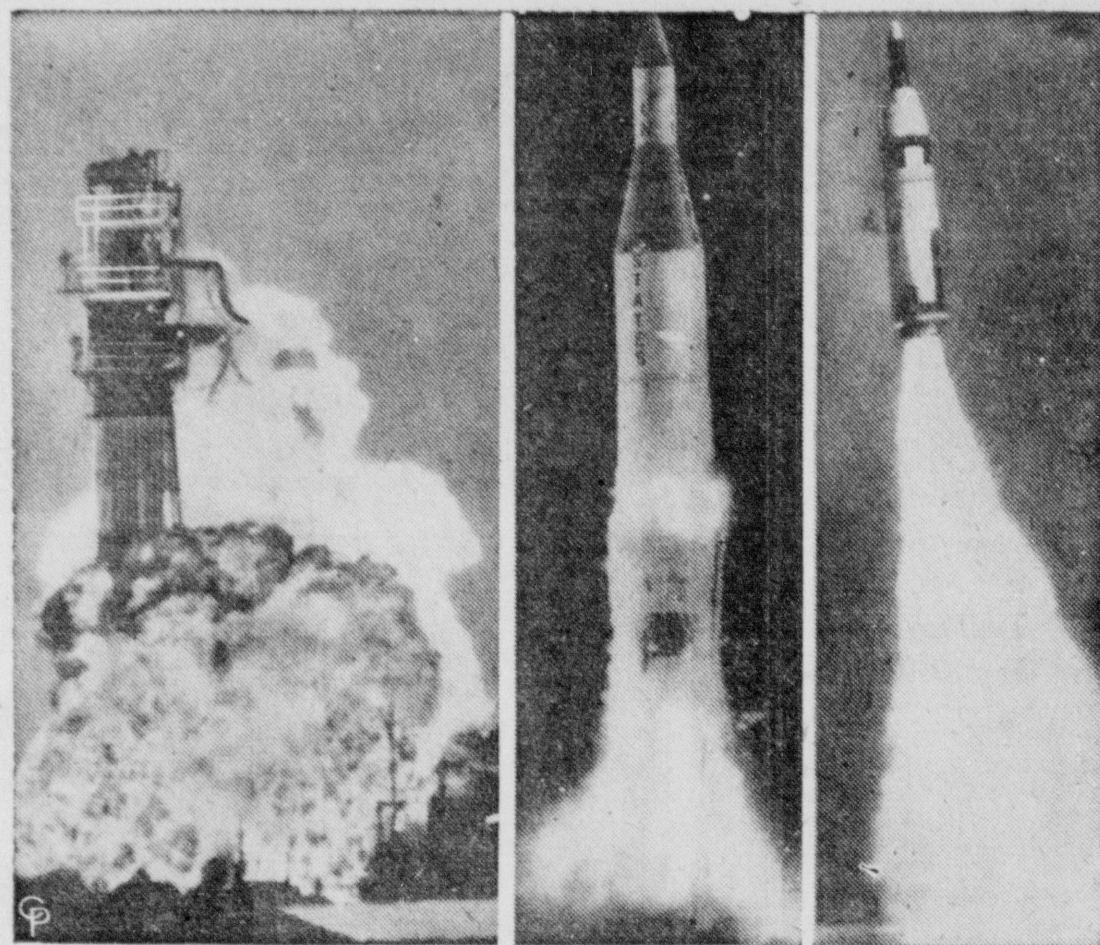

Wednesday she will appear at a supermarket opening in Warren, O.; Thursday at the Franklin County Fair, Hillsdale, and Sunday at Elyria.

On August 27 Carole is scheduled for an appearance in a parade at Nelsonville.

Plans are under way for Carole's trip to Atlantic City, where she will compete for the Miss America title. She will leave about September 6 and will compete September 9, 10, 11 and the finals September 12.

TRIPLE MISSILE SHOW—A 91-foot Titan intercontinental ballistic missile (left), the most deadly weapon in the nation's arsenal, explodes on its launching pad at Cape Canaveral, Fla., after it climbed a few feet on what was supposed to be its most critical test of the two-stage rocket. There were no injuries. In center, a Juno II rocket blasts away from its pad at Cape Canaveral, carrying a balloon-like satellite designed to be inflated in space. The thin-plastic-like-and-aluminum foil satellite "apparently failed to go into orbit," the National Aeronautics and Space Agency announced in Washington. At right, the Navy's Polaris intermediate range ballistic missile, designed for launching from submarines, streaks upward as it is fired from a shipboard simulator. Debris around the missile, headed down the Atlantic range, is from the compressed air blast.

DIDN'T GET POLIO SHOTS—The Majeau children, whose mother didn't get around to polio shots for them, look cheerful in Worcester, Mass., hospital, where they are all stricken with polio, but the non-paralytic kind. They are David, 5 (abed), Donna, 6, Michael, 3, Kenneth, 8. Their mother, Mrs. Marie Plante Majeau, 27, said, "I never thought it would happen to me. I haven't been good for anything since my husband was killed in an auto crash last April."

Old 'Western Spy' Due for Revival

CINCINNATI (AP)—J. J. Gilligan, Democratic city councilman, says he and a group of newsmen from the old Cincinnati Times-Star plan to revive the Western Spy, first newspaper in the city.

Gilligan said Sunday the group plans to bring out a weekly news magazine for southwest Ohio, with the first edition sometime next month. The Western Spy was first published in 1799. A group here tried to revive it last year as a weekly paper, but it ceased publication in December.

Gilligan said the staff will include Nixon Denton and Groverman Blanke of the old Times-Star; James Maxwell, a free lancer, and Ed Kennedy, sports director of radio station WKRC.

Motorbike, Car Collide Here

Walter Ehmling, 14, of 955 Circle Drive, was slightly injured when his motorbike and a car collided at 4:33 p. m. Saturday on E. Main St.

Ehmling suffered a laceration of the right knee and a small cut near the right eye. He was taken to a local physician's office and then to Berger Hospital.

The auto was driven by Clarence Myers, 69, of 510 E. Main St.

Myers told Patrolman John Lockard that he was heading west on E. Main St. and that he attempted to make a left turn. The motorbike was traveling east, Lockard said.

Patrolman Lockard said the right front fender of the car was slightly damaged. The motorbike received a bent fork and a pedal was broken off, he added.

FUGITIVES FROM THE FBI

JOHN TROLAND STEWARD, JR.

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

JOHN TROLAND STEWARD, JR., is being sought by the FBI for interstate flight to avoid prosecution for armed robbery. With an accomplice, he allegedly held up at gun point an Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company store in Chicago on Dec. 31, 1957.

The two men were apprehended on Jan. 14, 1958, and released on bond but on Feb. 20, 1958, Steward failed to appear in Cook County Criminal Court, Chicago, to answer the two armed robbery indictments.

On Aug. 28, 1958, a Federal warrant was issued at Chicago, charging Steward with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for armed robbery.

The fugitive is also known as Jack Copeland, Jack Stewart, James Stewart, John Stewart and Jerry Wells. His occupations include insurance agent, painter and delivery boy. He reportedly is nearsighted and indulges heavily in intoxicating beverages.

Steward has been convicted for grand larceny and leaving the scene of an accident. He allegedly has used a .38 caliber revolver, has a quick temper, and will fight without provocation. He should be considered armed and extremely dangerous.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 24; Born, Chicago; Height, 6 feet 1 inch to 6 feet 2 inches; Weight, 170 to 180; Build, medium; Hair, brown; Eyes, brown, wears glasses; Complexion, medium. Has tattoo "JO" on upper right arm.

INFORMATION concerning fugitive should be telephoned to the nearest FBI office. Distributed by King Features Syndicate

Army, Then Marriage

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP)—Robert McBride II, 19, and Miss Sarah Cellar, 17, are engaged. But a couple of hitches will delay the wedding a bit.

They've decided on Army service first, marriage to follow a year later. Both enlisted at Cleveland and she went to Ft. McClellan, Ala.; he to Ft. Benning, Ga.

Ernie Banks Heads For His Second MVP Award in NL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ernie Banks, Chicago's slugging shortstop, may become the first player in National League history to be voted the circuit's most valuable player in two years in succession.

Two National Leaguers — Stan Musial and Roy Campanella — won the coveted honor three times and two others—Rogers Hornsby and Carl Hubbell—won it twice but nobody has done it twice in succession.

Banks strengthened his claim Sunday, banging a two-run homer —his 36th of the season—as the Cubs defeated the San Francisco Giants 5-4 for their third victory in the four-game series. Ernie also was on base when Lee Walls smashed a three-run homer off loser Johnny Antonelli to break a 2-2 tie.

Ernie, batting .312, leads both leagues with 112 runs batted in and is tied for the lead with Washington's Harmon Killebrew in home runs. Last year he led both leagues with 47 home runs and 129 runs batted in.

Despite the defeat, the Giants retained their 2½ game lead over Los Angeles when St. Louis defeated the Dodgers 5-3. Milwaukee's third place Braves split with Pittsburgh, winning the second game of a doubleheader 5-2 after the Pirates had won the opener 2-1. Philadelphia swept a twin bill from Cincinnati 8-5 and 6-0.

Banks was an unexpected starter. He had been hit on the back by a pitch Saturday and doctors said it would be several days before Ernie would be able to play.

Bob Anderson was the winner but he needed help in the eighth with two runners on base. Willie Mays drove in two Giant runs with his 21st homer.

Larry Jackson pitched a 10-hit game as the Cards evened the four-game series with Los Angeles. Bill White and rookie Gene Oliver drove in all St. Louis' runs. White knocked in two with a single and his 11th homer. Oliver had a two-run single and a sacrifice fly. Roger Craig was the loser. Four were ejected in the argument-filled game, manager Solly Hemus, Don Blasingame and Ken Boyer of the Cards and Duke Snider of the Dodgers.

Bob Friend, after seven failures, finally won his 100th game, fifth of the season. The Pirates' 22-game winner of 1958 was tagged for 11 hits in the opener but his mates helped him with three double plays and relief pitcher Bob Porterfield came to his rescue in the ninth when the Braves got their lone run. Dick Stuart drove in both Pittsburgh runs off Juan Pizarro with a homer. Warren Spahn won the second for the Braves, doing out eight hits for his 16th triumph. Rookie Lee Mays and Frank Torre, with two hits and two runs each, paced the Braves' nine-hit attack.

They laughed last winter when Boston owner Tom Yawkey traded Jimmy Piersall, his flashy center fielder, to Cleveland for Gary Geiger, a nondescript flycatcher and Vic Wertz, a fading first baseman.

Joe Cronin, then the Red Sox general manager, and Mike Higginson, then the field manager, were in no mood for laughter. They were quite upset when Yawkey informed them of the deal—the first and only one he ever made.

"It's your club," was the substance of their lukewarm acceptance of the boss' trade.

"I'll take the responsibility," said Yawkey.

The Red Sox owner can take the bows today for one of the best player transactions ever made by the club.

Geiger, only 22, has easily been the happiest development in the Red Sox' rebuilding program. The fast-developing youngster is hitting .279 with 10 home runs and 38 runs batted in. Wertz, though hampered by injuries, is hitting .280 with seven homers and 45 runs batted in. Piersall, who lost the regular center field job in Cleveland to Tito Francona, is hitting only .240 with three home runs and 21 runs batted in.

Geiger and Wertz played key roles in the Red Sox near-sweep of a four-game series with the New York Yankees. It wasn't their fault that the Yankees won the second game Sunday, 4-2, after the Red Sox had won the opener, 6-5.

Kansas City defeated Chicago 7-2 and narrowed the White Sox' first place lead over Cleveland to three games. The Indians lost an opportunity to pick up more ground when a violent rainstorm in Detroit postponed their game in the second inning after they had scored five runs in the first. Washington whipped Baltimore 6-1.

Weatherman Interferes With Indians

DETROIT (AP)—The Cleveland Indians, still grumbling over the weatherman's interference in the American League pennant race, meet the Detroit Tigers today—a day they figured could be used for resting up.

The loss of rest didn't hurt as much as the loss of five runs, though.

The Indians took a 5-0 lead in the first inning of Sunday's game. A torrential downpour washed out the contest in the second inning. The umpires, realizing the importance of the game, waited one hour and 45 minutes before calling it off.

"I was afraid something like this would happen," moaned general manager Frank Lane. "I knew a five-run lead was too good to be true."

The Indians have no more dates scheduled in Detroit, so the game was rescheduled for the normally off day.

Cleveland gained a half-game in its bid to overtake Chicago when the White Sox lost at Kansas City and had their first place margin reduced to 3 games.

Detroit and Cleveland start from scratch today with the same pitchers. Gary Bell (13-9) goes after his sixth straight triumph against Paul Foytack (10-10) for the Tigers.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Your Wife Is an Angel

DEAR ABBY: My wife has an unusual hobby. She is a "match-maker." She keeps a little book of names, listing widows, divorcees and eligible men. She marks down how old they are and what they have to offer. She has made several good matches, but I want her to cut out this matchmaking business because she never gets thanked — only blamed if something goes wrong.

She claims there is nothing wrong with getting people together who could be interested in each other. I say she's foolish. If you agree with me, Abby, please print your answer.

DEAR LESTER: I hope you never know what it is to be lonely. Your wife is an angel! The only legitimate way a single woman can meet a respectable, eligible man (and vice versa) is through good friends. You should be proud of your wife. There are riskier hobbies.

DEAR ABBY: When a person is under the influence of liquor, does it make him tell the truth or does it help him to lie better?

DEAR DORIS: The effects of liquor vary with the individual, there is no dependable rule. If you can't believe him when he's sober, don't rely on him to tell the truth when he's drunk.

DEAR ABBY: I am desperate. My trouble is too many kids. At the age of 19 I married a widower with three small kids. I am 27 years old and have eight of my own. That makes eleven! Believe me, I am worn out. I have no mother or mother-in-law to help me. I feel like 60 instead of 27, Abby.

The only rest I've had in 8 years are the three days I spend in the hospital when I go to have a baby. Don't tell me to go to the Planned Parenthood Center because my husband gets boiling mad every time I mention it. He has no religion so that is not the reason. I have no religion either. Please help me. I am not able to support myself, but if you tell me to leave him, I will.

WORN-OUT

DEAR WORN-OUT: Stay with him only on the condition that he agrees to let you go to the Planned Parenthood Center for advice. If he refuses — separate roofs. He has to support you and the children anyway.

DEAR ABBY: About 9 months ago my beloved wife passed away. We had a beautiful marriage that lasted 32 years. I am 55 years old and terribly lonely. I would like some companionship to take my mind off my loss. This is rather a "small town" and I don't want to be talked about. How long should I wait before being seen in the company of another woman?

LONELY

DEAR LONELY: The accepted mourning period is one year. I don't recommend a two-year type date until after the customary mourning period has passed.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Miss Ohio Set for Five Appearances

Five personal appearances are scheduled for Miss Ohio, Carole Weiler, in the next 10 days.

Carole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weiler, 204 N. Pickaway St., will appear at the Ohio Valley Interstate Fair, Huntington, W. Va. tomorrow.

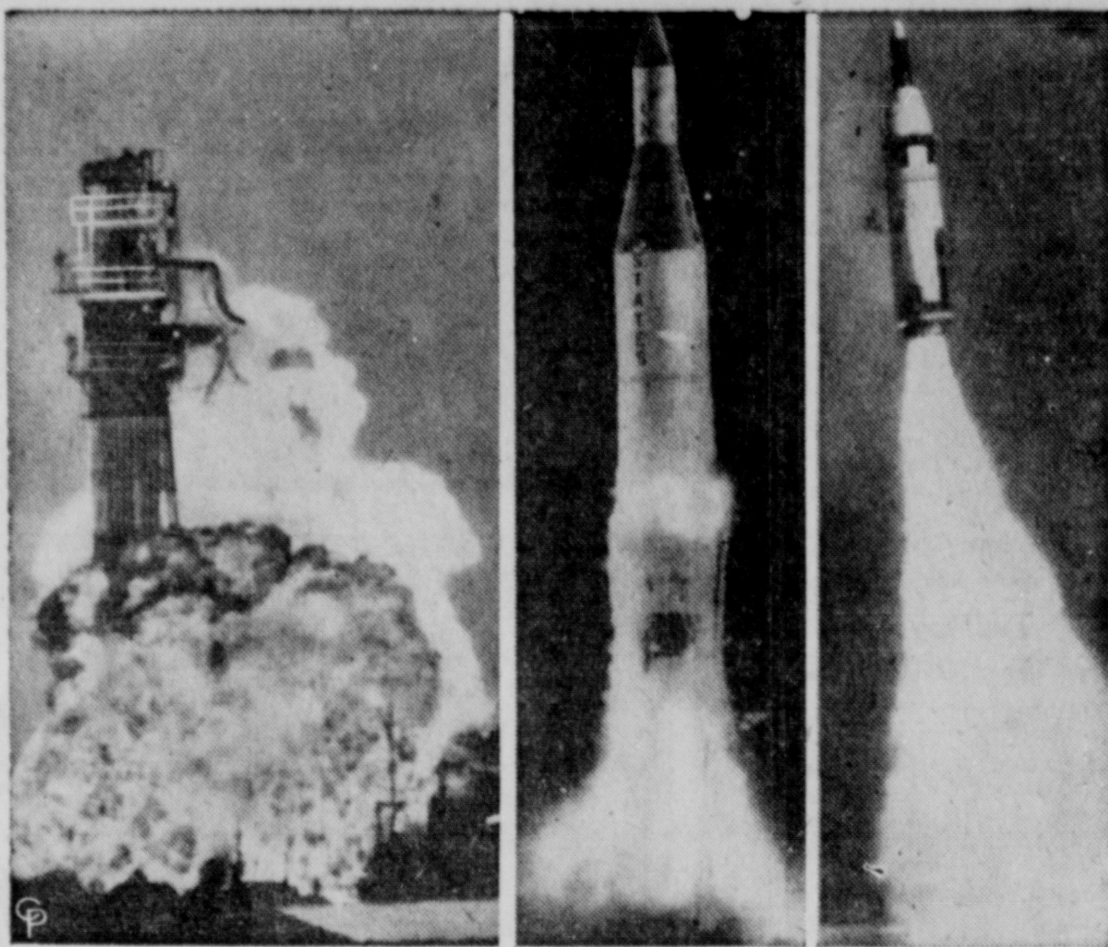

Wednesday she will appear at a supermarket opening in Warren, O.; Thursday at the Franklin County Fair, Hillsdale, and Sunday at Elyria.

On August 27 Carole is scheduled for an appearance in a parade at Nelsonville.

Plans are under way for Carole's trip to Atlantic City, where she will compete for the Miss America title. She will leave about September 6 and will compete September 9, 10, 11 and the finals September 12.

TRIPLE MISSILE SHOW—A 91-foot Titan intercontinental ballistic missile (left), the most deadly weapon in the nation's arsenal, explodes on its launching pad at Cape Canaveral, Fla., after it climbed a few feet on what was supposed to be its most critical test of the two-stage rocket. There were no injuries. In center, a Juno II rocket blasts away from its pad at Cape Canaveral, carrying a balloon-like satellite designed to be inflated in space. The thin-plastic-like-and-aluminum foil satellite "apparently failed to go into orbit," the National Aeronautics and Space Agency announced in Washington. At right, the Navy's Polaris intermediate range ballistic missile, designed for launching from submarines, streaks upward as it is fired from a shipboard simulator. Debris around the missile, headed down the Atlantic range, is from the compressed air blast.

DIDN'T GET POLIO SHOTS—The Majeau children, whose mother didn't get around to polio shots for them, look cheerful in Worcester, Mass., hospital, where they are all stricken with polio, but the non-paralytic kind. They are David, 5 (seated), Donna, 6, Michael, 3, Kenneth, 8. Their mother, Mrs. Marie Plante Majeau, 27, said, "I never thought it would happen to me. I haven't been good for anything since my husband was killed in an auto crash last April."

Old 'Western Spy' Due for Revival

CINCINNATI (AP)—J. J. Gilligan, Democratic city councilman, says he and a group of newsmen from the old Cincinnati Times-Star plan to revive the Western Spy, first newspaper in the city.

Gilligan said Sunday the group plans to bring out a weekly news magazine for southwest Ohio, with the first edition sometime next month.

The Western Spy was first published in 1799. A group here tried to revive it last year as a weekly paper, but it ceased publication in December.

Gilligan said the staff will include Nixon Denton and Groverman Blanke of the old Times-Star; James Maxwell, a free lancer, and Ed Kennedy, sports director of radio station WKRC.

Motorbike, Car Collide Here

Walter Ehmling, 14, of 955 Circle Drive, was slightly injured when his motorbike and a car collided at 4:33 p. m. Saturday on E. Main St.

Ehmling suffered a laceration of the right knee and a small cut near the right eye. He was taken to a local physician's office and then to Berger Hospital.

The auto was driven by Clarence Myers, 69, of 510 E. Main St.

Myers told Patrolman John Lockard that he was heading west on E. Main St. and that he attempted to make a left turn. The motorbike was traveling east, Lockard said.

Patrolman Lockard said the right front fender of the car was slightly damaged. The motorbike received a bent fork and a pedal was broken off, he added.

FUGITIVES FROM THE FBI

JOHN TROLAND STEWARD, JR.

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

JOHN TROLAND STEWARD, Jr., is being sought by the FBI for interstate flight to avoid prosecution for armed robbery. With an accomplice, he allegedly held up at gun point an Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company store in Chicago on Dec. 31, 1957. The two men were apprehended on Jan. 14, 1958, and released on bond but on Feb. 20, 1958, Steward failed to appear in Cook County Criminal Court, Chicago, to answer the two armed robbery indictments.

On Aug. 28, 1958, a Federal warrant was issued at Chicago, charging Steward with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for armed robbery.

The fugitive is also known as Jack Copeland, Jack Stewart, James Stewart, John Stewart and Jerry Walls. His occupations include insurance agent, painter and delivery boy. He reportedly is nearsighted and indulges heavily in intoxicating beverages.

Steward has been convicted for grand larceny and leaving the scene of an accident. He allegedly has used a .38 caliber revolver, has a quick temper, and will fight without provocation. He should be considered armed and extremely dangerous.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 24; Born, Chicago; Height, 6 feet 1 inch to 6 feet 2 inches; Weight, 170 to 180; Build, medium; Hair, brown; Eyes, brown, wears glasses; Complexion, medium. Has tattoo "JO" on upper right arm.

INFORMATION concerning fugitive should be telephoned to the nearest FBI office. Distributed by King Features Syndicate
